FRIDAY UPDATES
August 2, 2019

URGENT ALERT from Hazel Boettcher…
Hazel has been hacked. The threat has been solved, and she has taken the security measures needed. As a precaution please do not respond to any email requests from her regarding "a favor", or any other suspicious emails. Again… Hazel would like everyone to know that she has taken care of the hack.

Re: Rummage Sale
Can you believe.....we had 10 different women come in on Tues and Thurs mornings to help with sorting and pricing of items for upcoming Rummage Sale! Thanks be to ALL for such support. Final work will take place the week before the event starting Aug 19.
We are still collecting items...to be left in the parish hall. Please price if possible.

A sign-up sheet for WORKERS on Friday and Saturday...August 23 & 24...has been placed on the Ministry Table in the Parish Hall. Please check it out and see where you can help…Men, Women & Children (no pets please) Ha Ha.

Hazel B
COMMUNITY MEAL TUESDAY. Come one, come all. Join our community visitors and enjoy a delicious meal, presented by Marybeth and her crew. Everyone is welcome. The meal is free, but donations are welcomed.

SEPTEMBER 21 TEA plans continue, tickets are available for purchase. Reserve a table and invite your friends to join us. All tickets are a donation, but we want to fill the room with ladies and gentlemen. If you buy a ticket but cannot attend, please surrender your ticket so your seat can be filled. We remind all that this tea is replacing our annual bazaar, so the funds raised are for benefit of St. Luke's and for our community outreach programs. Please get the word out and buy your tickets early. It is, after all, our own Downton Abbey.

AUGUST 26, 6:00 pm, ECW meeting in the parish hall. Refreshments will be shared, so bring your favorite beverage and dish to share. It is hoped an evening meeting will bring more St. Luke's ladies to lend ideas and help to prepare for the tea.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY – Larry Pfeiffer, Aug. 4; Sandia Sommer and Brenda Schultheis, Aug. 8.

HAPPY ANNIVERSARY – Judy and Larry Pfeiffer, Aug. 4.

PRAYERS – Heavenly Father we thank you for your many blessings. We give thanks for those who are healing and recuperating, and we pray for those who are in treatment and those suffering in mind, body, or spirit. We ask your blessings for those affected by the storms and floods across the country. We pray for recovery for those who are working to rebuild their businesses and to restore their farmlands and homes. As children return to the classrooms this month we pray they will have safe and positive environments in which to learn. We pray for civility and respect among our politicians and legislators as they prepare for elections and that they will unite for the betterment of our county and our citizens. All these things we ask in Jesus' name. Amen.
